WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

NORTH CAROLINA.

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

Valuable Farm for Sale.

I OFFER FOR SALE that well known and desirable Farm, formerly owned by R. W. Flanahan, near Staunchsburg, Wilson County, N. C. It is situated on the County Road leading from Goldsboro' to Tarboro. The Tract contains of which 265 are cleared and in a fine state of cultivation. Plenty of MARL, easy of access. A good variety of Fruits and Vineyards, good Water, a healthy locality and intelligent and refined society. Dwelling House with 8 c modious rooms, nearly new. All out-houses necessary on a Farm.

The Farm is adapted to the growth of COTTON, CORN, VEGETABLES, and everything else usually grown in this section. It is located 7 miles from the W. & W. R. R., and is certainly one of the most beautiful situations in Eastern Carolina. I deem further description unnecessary, as no one would purchase without looking for himself. Come and see growing crop, without fertilizers or compost.

TERMS:—$2,000 cash, (currency,) and 150 bales of Cotton, (425 lbs. per bale,) payable in three annual instalments, with interest computed on Cotton at 15 cts. per lb. I have no hesitation in saying that I believe 100 acres in Cotton will pay the entire Cotton in two years. It is a rare chance for a good investment. Such property is seldom put in market. I am not confined exclusively to the above terms. The subscriber or Mr. Edmundson will take pleasure in showing the property to those wishing to purchase.

Address A. G. BROOKS,
Black Creek,
Sept. 16-2w4w Wilson Co., N. C.

Pay Your City Taxes!

BY AN ORDER of the Board of Commissioners, the City Tax Collector was ordered and directed to advertise for all delinquent tax payers to come forward, within the next twenty days, and pay their taxes; and those failing to do so, the Collector is directed to advertise their property for sale, according to law.

I may be found at Orrock's Store

IRON TIES vs. ROPE,
FOR BALING COTTON.

The New Orleans "Annual Statement and Prices Current" of 31st August, 1868, says:

"The marked success of iron ties, for baling Cotton has so completely superseded the use of bale rope, that the supplies of the latter have been hardly sufficient to constitute a market, the receipts comprising only 3,310 coils against 25,193 last year."

NEW YORK.

THE
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is UNCERTAIN, CONTINGENT, and UNKNOWN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty-three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

Age.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate	Age.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.
25	$14.92	$33.19	45	$28.67	$ 1.63
30	17.02	36 44	50	36.00	50 16
35	19.78	40 93	55	46.38	69 73
40	23.47	45.51	60	60 85	83 80

All the improved descriptions of Life and Endowment Policies issued on the Stock plan at greatly reduced rates.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing the return of all premiums paid in addition to the amount insured.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing a reduction of fifty per cent. of the premium after the third annual payment.

The undersigned having been appointed General Agents for the States of North and South Carolina, for the above STERLING Company, desire Agents in all the principal towns and sections in said States. To live and energetic Agents, who are WILLING and ANXIOUS to work, liberal terms will be entered into. COMMISSIONS GOOD.

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this insult to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULD'NT HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. ONE GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN, THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN, WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES TOO ARE THE BETTERS IT TAKES. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE REPS IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LOCOMOTIVES BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN FAWN'S IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM BYRON AND SHELLEY IN VOLUMES AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PARTY, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

THE RESULT.

Several days must yet elapse before the real result of the elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Nebraska is known.—Unless the Radical majorities in those States is very large, our people need not expect to get at the truth for some time, if they depend upon Radical sources for information. Their course in regard to the Maine and Connecticut elections is sufficient proof of this.

The truth is not flattering to the hopes of the Democrats in those States, yet the latest dispatches indicate that the large majorities in any of them claimed by the Radicals will not be realized. We have certainly gained two or three Congressmen in Pennsylvania and four in Ohio, and the prospect is, that, we have carried Indiana or lost it by a very small vote. Our gains so far in Indiana show that a near approach to the official vote must decide the matter.

At all events, we incline to the opinion, that whatever the reported majorities against us in Pennsylvania and Indiana, it is not too much to hope, as we said on yesterday, that a determined rally of the Democrats and Conservatives in those States, if not in Ohio, may turn back the tide in November. What has been may be again, and hence we are not hopeless of the final result.

We are glad to find that our State cotemporaries feel with us, that the issues are too important, too dear to patriots and lovers of liberty to give way to complainings or in the least to relax our efforts. All feel that whatever may be the general result, North Carolina must be redeemed.

Our cotemporary the Charlotte Times takes the following correct view of the subject:

"Dispatches received here yesterday indicate the success of the Radicals in Pennsylvania and Ohio. This may be so, yet we doubt if the information received in a few hours after closing the polls, can be at all relied on. But even if it be really the case, is there reason for despondency? We say, No. Even though Grant and Colfax be elected, have we not every incentive before us to work manfully for the redemption of this grand old State from Radical misrule? The effect of carrying this State for Seymour and Blair will do much to curb the insolence of the party in power and restrain them from too high-handed acts of despotism and ruin.

That the State can be carried, no sane man can doubt, if the Conservatives but do their duty. In April, the Radicals carried the State by 20,000 majority. At that election 25,774 registered voters did not vote at all. It is a notorious fact that every Radical in the State, through the Loyal League, was compelled to vote or it is certain that, making due allowance for the sick and absent, that more than 20,000 of these voters were Conservatives. Add to these those who were then disfranchised, which number at least 15,000, of whom at least 12,000 are Conservatives, there can be no doubt but that the State can be carried by at least 10,000 majority.

What we want is, Zeal, Energy, Patriotism and Work! Will not the glory of having redeemed and disenthralled the good old North State be ample reward for all our labors and sacrifice? A thousand times, YES. To work then, and never pause till sunset of the 3rd. of November."

RADICAL LINE OF FALSEHOOD.

The Asheville Pioneer, of the 8th. inst., under the head of "Journalism," preaches against falsehoods of the press. It says:

"Having an immense sway over the minds of the masses, how important that the influence of the press should be used for the benefit of law, order and morality, for progress and the dissemination of truth—and how careful should the journalist be that the lever in his hands is not prostituted to base uses and made to disseminate untruthfulness, injustice and impurity!"

And again:

"The people demand the truth in undefiled terms, and, sooner or later, journals which furnish anything else will learn that they will have it."

After reading the foregoing, who would expect to find in the Pioneer, issue after issue, such barefaced falsehoods as the following:

"Let us have war."—Blair.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

The Convention that nominated Seymour and Blair issued the following declaration of war:

"There is but one way to restore the government, and that is for the President to declare these acts null and void, compel the army to overthrow the State Governments, abolish negro suffrage, and elect Senators and Representatives by white votes alone."

"Colored men! Slavery or serfdom is before you if you vote for Seymour and Blair."

"Chief Justice Chase of the Supreme Court of the United States is for Grant and Colfax."

Again, in the Pioneer, of the 11th. inst., appears the following:

"We would also ask the Secretary why he opposed Governor Holden's request to modify the whiskey tax in Western North Carolina, and which was also urged upon him by Commissioner Rollins? The answer is plain. An official who is led by men of Vallandigham's stamp, cannot be friendly to such sterling Republicans as the latter gentlemen."

The following appears in the Pioneer of this State:

The following is the extract, found in section second of the act imposing taxes upon distilled spirits:

* * * * "And the Commissioner of Internal Revenue is hereby authorized, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, to exempt distillers of brandy from apples, peaches, of grapes exclusively, from such other of the provisions of this act relating to the manufature of spirits as in his judgment may seem expedient."

And why has not this modification affected the small distillers of North Carolina? For the reason mentioned above—the Democrats refuse to have it done. Gov. Holden, the friend of the people, made application to Commissioner Rollins to modify the tax according to the section just quoted, and the Commissioner, a good Republican, urged the matter upon Secretary McCulloch, who refused to modify the tax. And why? Because he, a Democrat, wished his party to use the whiskey cry for Democratic policy. This is why, distillers of the Seventh Congressional District, you are compelled to undergo all the expense and trouble intended only for large distillers. Be not longer deceived, but rebuke this oppressive party at the polls, that they may no longer hold offices whereby they may oppress you."

This, again, as well as all quoted from the Pioneer, is false, utterly false, false in the whole, false in all of its parts, false in every sentence, line and word, save the quotation from the act of Congress.

As to the Whiskey tax, Commissioner Rollins has never urged a modification of the whiskey tax in Western North Carolina, or any where else upon Secretary McCulloch, consequently the Secretary has never refused to modify it. This we know.—Commissioner Rollins decided that the tax could not be modified.

This decision having been brought to the attention of the Secretary, not by the Commissioner, but by others, he being anxious, if possible, to afford relief to the small distillers, whose business has been utterly destroyed by the Radical Congress—referred the matter to the Attorney General, whose opinion has not yet been given. A Radical Congress passed the law and a Radical Commissioner has announced his construction of the law, which construction is, no doubt, in strict conformity with the Radical purpose to built up the large distilleries by effectually destroying the small ones; such as exist in Western North Carolina.—We have authority from Washington for making the above statement.

Look at the law, as published in the Pioneer. What power does it give the Secretary? None, whatever, save simply to approve such modification as the Commissioners may offer him for his approval. The Commissioners have not offered any modification for his approval. The act gives the Secretary no power to afford relief, unless such relief is proposed by the Commissioner. The Commissioner says the law does not authorize him to propose relief. The Secretary, not doubting the honest intentions of the Commissioner, yet hoping that his decision may be erroneous—has in his anxiety to afford relief, if possible, referred the matter, as before stated, to the Attorney General.

When will the Pioneer, or any other Radical sheet, practice its own precepts?

FAIR AND FEAST.—The ladies connected with the Episcopal Church in Warrenton, will give a Fair and Feast in that place on the 22d inst.

RETURNING.—The Wilmington Journal says that the citizens, who have been absent during the summer, are returning and filling up their places in the several Churches.

ADAMS IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

Great Speech of John Quincy Adams, of Mass., in Columbia, S. C.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE WORLD.)

COLUMBIA, S. C., October 12.

John Quincy Adams, the Democratic candidate for Governor of the State of Massachusetts, addressed a large and most deeply attentive audience in this city last evening. His speech, as will be seen from the report below, was able and masterly.

SPEECH OF JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

My Fellow-Citizens of South Carolina:—I have come to speak to you here to day from my distant home in Massachusetts at the earnest request of your State Central Executive Committee, to consult with you upon the living principles of our free institutions, in the hope that our meeting may in some degree, however small, tend to promote a better understanding, a kinder feeling, and ultimate harmony between the mass of white people here, and a very large portion of the people of the North, and especially of my own State; and I am here also to learn from your own lips your wishes and intentions upon questions of public policy which most nearly affect you. You also have, perhaps, been told that I am a grandson of one of the earliest opponents of your peculiar institution, and I will tell you that I was an ardent though humble supporter of Mr. Lincoln; a hearty friend of his administration; always in favor of an energetic prosecution of the war while it lasted, and that I hailed with gratitude the abolition of slavery.

I had long regarded it as a dangerous element in our Federal policy, and certain at some time or other to jeopardize the existence of the Union and the authority of the Constitution. Sooner or later the conflict between the two systems of labor, the free labor of the North and the slave labor of the South, was sure to come. It did come and has passed away with terrible suffering, and now the South lies down bleeding and faint, and almost despairing looks vainly for the sign of promise in her dark horizon.

You ask each other in vain what shall we do? where can we go? whence cometh our salvation? I will tell you, my friends, frankly at the outset that I believe that your redemption must be your own act, that your fate is in your own hands at last. I do not mean to deny that your condition from time to time may be influenced by fluctuations of the heads of politicians at the North, but I suspect that your permanent welfare will mainly depend on the power you may develop now to grasp firmly and embrace sincerely the fundamental principle of our Government as settled by the war—a constitutional Democracy.—That principle seems to me a recognition of equal rights of all men under the law, or stretch it as broadly as possible, the right of every man to think, speak, and act as he wishes, provided he does not, by so doing, infringe the equal right of his neighbor. I do not regard political privileges as rights in this sense at all. The general welfare of the community must regulate their distribution. This is all very well, you may say, but it offers no present and practical solution of our difficulty. It is very much like telling a man who is suffering from intemperance that his only permanent cure must come from his adherence to the laws of health.

We are now suffering terribly, both North and South, from political intemperance.—You were guilty of it when you did all in your power to rupture the Union by force, because you would not trust the question of slavery to the people under the Constitution. We are guilty of it now when we will not restore the Union under the Constitution; when we mistrust the people. What are needed in the first place are moderation and calmness, and a habit of patience in politics. We are inclined to be impulsive and heading in our device. Waiting and watching, relying on slow but sure processes, has never been a very popular with any people of our race, and is peculiarly distasteful to us; but, my fellow-citizens, this disagreeable discipline is in my judgment precisely the training we all of us are in need of, and I think it essential to your happy deliverance. Let us come down, to the actual facts of your case and try to look at them calmly, dispassionately, and without prejudice. It is always foolish to deceive ourselves, and in your case, to mislead you knowingly would be a crime. I shall therefore speak with frankness and plainness.

You began the war down here at Sumpter, under a claim of right to defend yourself as an independent State which had exercised a reserved right to secede from the Union, and I take it that no one denies that the course of that action was the apprehended danger to slavery from the result of the election of 1860. You fought for your side of the controversy for four years, with a desperate determination and courage, until at last you were compelled by the fate of battle to surrender. You had allied yourselves with other seceded States, and formed a Confederacy which claimed an equal rank among the nations. You proclaimed slavery its corner stone. In the stress of conflict, as a war measure, justified by the emergency, and as a means of distressing you, your slaves were proclaimed free. The North insisted that no State could secede under the Constitution, and that the whole proceeding, on the part of the South was an insurrection of a portion of the people of the seceding States.

It is far from my intention to revive old controversies or re open settled disputes, but I must state the facts to bring us to our present position. You claimed to be a sovereign State, and, on your own showing, were by the laws of war, subject to any terms the victor might impose. It did not lie in your mouths, therefore, to demand any rights in the Union you had broken, or any remedy from the consequences of your own acts under the Constitution you had renounced. If you were to accept your own theory of action you were alien enemies, and, your land conquered territory, and so subject to the naked hands of war alone. But the North had always denied every one of your positions, and had insisted that you were never out of the Union; that your resolutions of secession were simply void; that you could not cease to be citizens of the United States by any such process, and that, of course, you were liable, when taking the pains and penalties of perjury. To be sure, this theory was infringed a little in practice, as in respect to exchange of prisoners, and observance of some laws of warfare that obtain between independent States. But this was the accepted faith.

The war was to subdue insurrection, not to conquer a nation. You were defeated rebels, not vanquished alien enemies, and the Union was re established, not extended, over your territory. It was upon this theory that the Government of the United States proceeded at first to renew what were called the practical relations of the States to the Union, and you gladly accepted this view of the case, and did all in your power to resume your vacant place. Now it has always seemed to me that you, by your act at that time, gave all the pros in your power that you abandoned the principle for which you fought, accepted the decision of your wager of battle, and bowed to the supremacy of the Constitution. You were offered, and you ratified, an amendment to that instrument, absolutely and forever abolishing slavery. You manifested, so far as I have been able to see, a disposition to take us on our own terms and renounce all you had fought for; pay in full the stake for which you had played and lost. To be sure, you had no choice, and you could not then have complained had you been treated for what you claimed to be—alien enemies—but you might have been sullen and refused to do any thing. You did the best you could do, as I have always thought. I think the North would have done the very best thing she could have done to have taken you back in the fine temper in which General Grant reported he found you at that time; but I do not know.

Your people here may be different from any people I have ever seen or known, or read of, but I think it would have been best to have then taken you cordially by the hand, told you that we believed your promises, accepted your word of honor, and that bygones should be bygones. Besides, I think we were in good faith bound, after you had acceded to our own errors and acted upon them, when offered by an authority which you believed, and I still believe, was adequate to act bindingly in the premises, to complete the transaction. Much as you were interested in our doing, I the North was even more so. I think it would have restored the Union with the least shock to its frame work and with the least possible strain to the Constitution.—Congress, however, interfered, tore asunder once more the knitting fracture, because they averred the cure would never be fair and sound by that process, and adopted another. Their first attempt was the 14th amendment, which they offered you as a close preparatory to adjournment. But it was not stated to be final, and there is much controversy at the North as to your reasons for rejecting it. If it was the suffrage clause which decided your action, I think, looking at it from your position, you were wrong. If you could not swallow the clause requiring you to disqualify your leaders, my heart tells me you were right—I hope I shall never lisp one word of reproach against any man who refused to go back from his chosen foremost man at such a time, but, at any rate, its submission to you at all showed that thus far Congress stuck to the Northern theory of the contest.

But next came an entire change of base, and Congress abandoned the Northern view of matters entirely, and thus late in the day came over to the camp you had been beaten out of, and the more tenable position of the two. They took up your old ground, and insisted that you were, after all, alien enemies; your country, conquered territory; yourselves prisoners of war, and your rights of every kind forfeited. This is at bottom the meaning of the reconstruction acts under which you now live. They are based on conquest and the right of the victor in international warfare. I do not think that this was, upon a comprehensive view of the general and permanent welfare of the whole people, a generous, a wise, or a constitutional course to take, but it has been taken, and now we come to the difficulties of the position. As things in fact stand, what is best for us to do? How can we best modify or remedy existing evils? The case would be puzzling enough at least, but the addition of the elements of universal negro suffrage perplexes it tenfold.—Then it is complicated by a multitude of conflicting theories, prejudices, and passions, here as well as at the North, and circumstances of peculiar political excitement attending a Presidential election in which this very question of your proper status is the vital issue, render it well nigh impossible to arrive at satisfactory conclusions. The best considerations, however, which I have been able to give the subject, has brought me to some conclusions, which I offer with great diffidence, but in entire good faith.

I propose to try to escape from our difficulties by reversing the process that brought us into them when you appealed to arms to decide a disputed question of constitutional construction, and at the fate of slavery in the ordeal of battle, you took, as it seems to me, the first irrevocably false step. You refused to abide by the decision of the tribunal provided by the Constitution, and you would not accept the verdict of the people rendered under the constitutional form, when adverse to you. The barriers which had been provided for just such an emergency, you, in heat and impatience, threw down. No written Constitution can possibly be made strong enough in itself to restrain the people, unless they themselves are wise and calm enough to see, even in their hottest moments, even when the temptation to grasp a coveted object or secure a threatened end is most overwhelming, that in the long run and upon a balance of contingencies they will be happier by observing scrupulously their self imposed limits. They may have to lose or defer a cherished hope that they may not by-and by be obliged to suffer a dread ill. But the passions which the slavery agitation aroused were too fierce for argument, too impatient for the tedious processes of law.

The second step was taken by us when we broke from President Lincoln's calm, peaceful, and constitutional way, and dashed on our mad course in our turn through the organic law. Mr. Lincoln's mind was legal and moderate, and he moved carefully in a well considered way. Mr. Sumner's mind is theoretical and extreme and very impatient of restraint. He must leap to his end even if the heavens fall, and upon him eventually fell the mantle as the leader of the Republican party. To his inspiration more than any other man is due the reconstruction acts. The same madness ruled the hour which had already wrought your ruin. Your leaders could not brook their threatened fate in the Union; ours could not possibly for a moment their promised future. It seems to me, if we trace out the process, it is the same in the one case as in the other. It was in both cases what I have called political intemperance. Neither party had faith enough in their cause or fellow-citizens, or patience enough in natural or regular methods, or confidence enough in the supreme law which our fathers gave us to hide our time, in the assured conviction that the greatest good for all must eventually result. You have suffered the penalty of your intemperance, and you are feeling its effects bitterly to-day. We, too, if I am not very much mistaken, have a day of reckoning in store for us, a painful sobering from our debauch. If we persist, it is impossible for any tolerable government to continue long, for it will degenerate into a mere squabble of contending factions for a chance to oppress for a time their less active or less numerous opponents.

Now you can see clearly enough to day, where your interest lies. If you invoke the Constitution, it is not hard to find the reason you need most terribly just that protecting medium interposed between you and the governing majority. A Constitution is meant for just that, to mitigate and distribute the blows of the majorities. Some day, I have no doubt, we shall see in Massachusetts the merit of its operations as clearly as you do now, but I fear that it will not be until we are in a minority and look in vain for the shield we threw away towards some threatening blow. But to you, my friends, this necessity is pressing, is overbearing. Something you must have, you think, or perish now without going so far as that. I believe that the very best thing for you to do is to try to get back within the Constitution of the United States. You are substantially prisoners of war, held by military forces, and liable at any time to further orders from the majority.

I do not intend to speak disrespectfully of your State government, and I would especially urge the utmost obedience to your de facto rulers, but I take it that it would be long insisted upon here if it was understood that the North took no manner of interest in it. You want the original principles of the Union restored; the right of the States to manage their own domestic affairs without the interference of the General Government and the manifold checks and balances and distribution of powers which our ancestors devised and re adjusted, and I agree with you that it is your only practicable escape from the jail which Radicalism North and South, has made of your good old State, so far as you are concerned, and this brings us to the key of our discussion. How can this be done?

Why, how did it happen to need be done—I mean the last and proximate cause of your present unprotected position? It was, as I think, mainly because the extreme, impatient, and fanatical portion of the governing party were enabled, partly in consequence of Mr. Lincoln's death, and partly by the discretion of the South to overpower the calmer and more moderate men in the party and yield its whole force against you. Now I know that it is likely that many of you may feel a general and indiscriminate detestation of the Republican party involving the whole array in the denunciations which you would like to launch at their accredited leaders. Now, gentlemen, this feeling is not unnatural, and it is one of the worst results of the bad government you suffer that it makes men feel so; it fosters a blind, indiscriminating enmity to its rulers among its subjects; but in your case it is very unwise to indulge it, and it is very unjust to a large section of that party.—There are heats of wise, calm, kind, and moderate men in that party. There are multitudes who feel no more unkindness to you than I do; there are many thousands who deplore and deprecate the course which has been taken in dealing with you—a majority of that party, as I hope and pray, love the Constitution as well as I do, and regret its infraction as deeply as I do; but yet they can see no alternative but to go with it to day. The fact is that distrust, suspicion, fear, has more to do with your sorry plight than anger or malice. I have always thought so; but I have thought of late there was certainly a feeling of soreness, a rising of the gorge, at the thought of the reappearance of your old leaders in conspicuous places. But the strongest cards which the Radical leaders had were disbelief in your vows of allegiance, want of confidence in your professions respecting slavery, fear for the future for the freedmen, and a deep distrust of your patience and good conduct in such matters as free discussion, forbearance with difference of opinion, and the right of unmolested travel or settlement among you. Perhaps you are aware how gravely such doubts and fears have comprised your case, but it may be wholesome if distasteful to review these widespread suspicions and opinions a little in detail.

Of course, nothing could lead more strongly to justify the severe measures of the Republican party towards you, or secure to them more surely an indefinite extension of political power, than to be able to persuade the North, which, in the early days of peace, was inclined to place a generous confidence in your professions of a sincere and absolute acquiescence in the events of the war, and your purpose to abide in good faith by the decision, that you were dissemblers and dishonorable perjurers, that your purpose was to redeem by hard swearing what you lost by hard fighting, and you yourselves, in many cases, furnished the material for making evidence against yourselves. Part of it was legitimate and part was very unfair, but it all was eagerly caught up and unsparingly used.

If you had been a dangerous foreign foe, whose utter destruction was necessary for safety greater pains could hardly have been taken to inflame the people against you, and close their hearts to your appeals. I doubt if Cato took more trouble to show the Roman people that Carthage must be destroyed, and Punic faith must have been very bad, indeed, if it was represented to be worse than your own. Every hasty word, every natural regret, every expression of pride in the memories of the old campaigning days, every ebullition of heat was carefully remembered and spread before the North. If an irresponsible newspaper editor or reporter published a foolish and inflammatory article, it was instantly pounced upon and scattered all over the North to show that the mass of Southern feeling was as rebellious as ever. If you made any attempt to take part in politics you were bent on revolution; if you refrained you were sullenly plotting a new insurrection. The peaceful presence of delegates at the Convention in New York was a plot, and the resolutions were dictated by you, and your only object was to seduce the Democratic party into a new war. These devices and a thousand more have been used so long and so well that it is no wonder that they have produced a very great effect. The person or the paper cited against you may have been so obscure as not to have reached your notice here, or so low as to preclude serious attention on your part, or the writer or the speaker may have been garbled or falsified; but it made no difference. The contradiction or disproof came after the damage was done, and was not published to the same audience which had seen or heard the charge made. The antidote was powerless to reach the poison. Nor were your intentions respecting slavery satisfactory. It was urged that it had become so ingrained that you could not of yourselves refrain from a lingering for it, and the wish would ripen deeds if the chance was offered. It was useless to urge your consent to the thirteenth amendment, for if you ever had the power you would surely denounce your action therein as done under duress and will. If one asked to be shown some conceivable method by which, under the circumstances, such a consummation could be practically arrived at, the only answer was, where there is a will there is a way. It was useless to urge that slavery was at best an expensive establishment, it now would be worse than valueless. Nor could the very men who had always proved this very fact, and declared further that you were sitting on a powder magazine even when your slaves were most isolated, most ignorant, most guarded, and absolutely unarmed, so that now when they had tasted freedom, been stuffed with new ideas of their rights, unwatched and bristling with weapons, any attempt to re enslave them would be the act of a madman who plunges a flaming torch into the black grains of powder beneath him. The distrust upon this head was mostly fostered by intrepid statement, and supported by vague but passionate declamation. But on another cognate subject, your own people furnished weapons which were used with disastrous effect against you.

CONCLUDED TO-MORROW.

COL. JAS. W. HILTON, a leading lawyer of Norfolk, but a native of this State and still practising in the First District, delivered a three hour's speech recently, at Elizabeth City, on the crisis, of great power. The blacks in attendance were much interested and serenaded him at night. Col. H. has aided in the canvass at other points.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1868.

REGISTER! REGISTER!!

Registration commences on next Thursday. We again call on all Democrats and Conservatives to register,—REGISTER,—REGISTER,—and that at once. No matter how enthusiastic they may be, no matter how faithfully they may attend their Club meetings, they will be impotent for any effective good, unless they register! That is the great duty.

SEE advertisement of Austin, Corbin & Co., in another column.

APPOINTMENTS.

Hon. Sion H. Rogers, candidate for Congress, and Col. W. J. Green, candidate for Elector, will address the people at

Oxford,	Oct.	13
Spring Hope, (Nash,)	"	15
Beulah,	"	16
Poplar Spring, (Franklin,)	"	17
Nashville,	"	20
Brassfields,	"	23
Laws',	"	23
Oak Grove,	"	24
Lassiter's ✕ Roads, (Chatham.)	"	26
Hadley's,	"	27
Stout's,	"	28
Matthews,	"	29
Mt. Vernon Springs (at night,)	"	29
Bear Creek,	"	30
Pittsboro',	"	31
Buckhorn,	"	31

Several changes have been made in the above, to conform them to appointments previously made in Chatham. Our friends will please note them. J. J. Davis, Esq., candidate for Elector, and Col. E. G. Haywood will be at Pittsboro' on the 31st.—Maj. York, H. K. Nash, Esq., and others, are expected to be at Buckhorn on the 31st.

Messrs. Dewcese and McDonald are invited to be present at these meetings. The time will be divided with them.

TICKETS! TICKETS!!

Don't forget to supply yourselves with tickets. The Clubs or Executive Committee of each County must look out for this, and the candidates must not omit it.

The Electoral ticket, Congressional ticket, and if a vacancy in the Senate or House of Representatives is to be filled, in any of the Districts, the ticket for Senator or Representative, must be all on the same slip or ballot. Those who order tickets must be sure to give special directions, name, County or District for the Congressional or Legislative ticket. The Electoral ticket will be the same all over the State.

We will print plain tickets or ballots, on the ordinary paper, for $2 per 1,000. On colored paper, with flags, for $3 per thousand. The cash must accompany the order.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We call attention to the new advertisements of W. C. Stronach & Co., who have opened at Mr. Towles' old stand.

G. T. Stronach continues the Grocery and Commission business at his old stand on Market Square.

New Books may be found at J. A. Jones' bookstore. See his advertisement.

ANOTHER ROBBERY.—One or more robbers entered the premises of Gen. Miles, in this city, on Wednesday night last, and stole from the premises, valuable carriage harness, saddle, &c., worth $200. A liberal reward will be given for the detection of the robbers.

DEEMS' HOME ALTAR.—We have been presented by J. A. Jones, bookseller, with a very neat and revised edition of Rev. Dr. Deems' Home Altar, intended to assist heads of families in the duty of family worship. It should be in every house. It is free from sectarianism and is valuable.—Mr. Jones will send it by mail to any order, accompanied with the cash, $1.25.

REGISTRAR'S OFFICE.—We learn that in and about the Registrar's office in the Court House on yesterday, were to be seen as persons went to register, one or more Radical pictures and caricatures, put up, reflecting upon Mr. Seymour, Gen. Hampton and others. Did Mr. Andrews, the Registrar, consent to this? Does he countenance such conduct by letting them remain? The offence is an insult and a wrong to the Democrats, and they should be removed at once. We are surprised that he or Sheriff Lee would permit such a thing. Would either of them allow caricatures of General Grant, being taken out of the gutter, or of Mr. Colfax coming out of a Know Nothing dark lantern hole, to be put up there? We would condemn the thing in either case.

ANOTHER PROCLAMATION.—We learn that the Standard of yesterday contains a long letter or proclamation to the Sheriff of Granville, to arrest a white man for whipping a negro man. We have not seen it.—But we learn that an attempt is being made to knock up a dust in Granville to call out the militia, &c. It is believed that Mr. Lassiter and Coffee Mayo are becoming uneasy at the prospects of Grant and Colfax in Granville. We beg our friends in Granville to give us the truth, upon which Gov. Holden's order to the Sheriff is founded.

BERTIE.—Extracts from a letter from Windsor. "The candidates Barnes and Cobb for Congress, and Jarvis and Sutton for Elector, spoke here yesterday. Jarvis gave great satisfaction. He is a rising man in our District. Bertie envies Tyrrell the possession of Thos. J. Jarvis. Judge Barnes spoke with his well known ability."

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS' SPEECH.—We ask every reader to peruse carefully the speech of Hon. John Quincy Adams, at Columbia, S. C. The balance of it will appear tomorrow.

A GREAT OUTRAGE.—We learn that the granary of Col. S. S. Cooper, near Williamsboro', in Granville county, was set on fire by incendiaries, on Sunday night last, consuming his wheat and the building, entire. The perpetrators not discovered.

REGISTRATION.

Registration commenced all over the State on yesterday. In this city, quite a number of blacks and a few whites registered.

We beg the people to attend to this.—The Democrats and Conservatives must be represented at the tables of the Registrars.

Remember that unless a voter is challenged when he registers, he cannot be when he votes.

Remember that a voter must be 21 years of age, must have resided in the State twelve months before the election and in the county where he votes thirty days before the election.

No one can register but at one precinct, and every voter must vote where he registers unless he presents a certificate from the Registrar, that he registered at a given precinct.

Impress upon the voters that they can vote but once, and that if they do there is a severe penalty.

Heretofore, the impression prevails, that a number of negro boys under 21 years of age, have registered. This ought not to be allowed.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

W. M. Robbins, Esq., Elector for the 6th District on the Seymour and Blair Ticket, will address the people at the following times and places:

Taylorsville, Monday,	Oct.	19.
Statesville, Tuesday,	"	20.
Newton, Wednesday,	"	21.
Lincolnton, Thursday,	"	22.
Charlotte, Thursday night,	"	22.
Grassy Creek, Saturday,	"	24.
Concord, Tuesday,	"	27.
Powder Spring, (Iredell) Wednesday,	"	28.
Park's Store, Thursday,	"	29.
Hamptonville, Friday,	"	30.
Yadkinville, Saturday,	"	31.

The Elector on the Grant Ticket will find Mr. Robbins willing to divide time with him, at any of these appointments.

MASS MEETING AND BARBECUE.

These usual accompaniments of a campaign, are being used extensively in this State, and we trust with much potency, but we take occasion again to warn our people, that all is not gold that glitters, and that every man who huzzas and throws up his hat over a great Democratic speech, of which we have had many in this campaign, or who eats of your barbecue, is not a sound convert to your political faith. The last canvass in these respects had never been beaten. The present one is its equal, and we are sure that great speaking, large meetings, high enthusiasm and fine barbecues were never more fully brought into requisition, or employed, by the Democrats, than in the late campaign in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana.

These may be done, but there are other things that must not be left undone. The old Democratic programme must be brought into requisition. The people must be supplied with reading matter. We must talk with our friends in the stores and shops and fields—on the roads and at the fireside. We must be in earnest. Ours is a contest of principles. It is a struggle for liberty and the Constitution, and every man must do his duty. Watch the registration and the polls, and all will be well.

DOCUMENTS! DOCUMENTS!

Our friends from various Counties call for documents. For their information we state, that the Democratic Executive Committee in this city have sent out 80,000 four page tracts to our friends in all the Counties for distribution. The postage on them has been paid here, and neither Dewcese, Brogmall, or any body else, has franked one of them. Let our friends enquire for them at the Post Office. All this has been done, and much more would have been, but the contributions received by the Committee, up to this time, have not been sufficient to pay for what has been done.

MICA ON ISINGLASS.—In various parts of the State, mines of Mica or Isinglass, have been found. Few persons know their value, and hence are liable to be imposed upon by purchasers who know their value better. To prevent this and to enable our people to act understandingly in selling their Mica property, we mentioned a few days ago, at his suggestion, that Rev. Dr. Craven, at Trinity College, N. C., who has given considerable attention to the subject, and who understands the value of this kind of property, desired all persons in the State having property of this kind, would correspond with him, and that he would be ready to give them such advice, as would better enable them to sell to advantage.—The proposition is made by him without the prospect of any pecuniary interest to himself.

A GOOD SCHOOL.—We are pleased to learn that Gen. Colston, late of the Military School at Hillsboro', opened his school in Wilmington on Monday last, with fifty-five scholars. Our military friends will find Gen. Colston an accomplished instructor and an intelligent and reliable gentleman. Success to our schools.

DENIAL.—A colored Democrat of Warren, named Henry Davis, publishes a card in the Warrenton Courier, in reply to a card of A. H. Galloway, which Davis calls "a foul mouthed card," published in the Woman Insulter, of this city. Davis denies the allegation of Galloway, that he, Davis, attempted to assassinate him while addressing a meeting in Warrenton, as he says, was proved in the examination which followed; and, on the contrary, affirms that he, Davis, was assaulted by the crowd, when he had no purpose of making a disturbance. Davis charges that Galloway's card was published for political effect, and is untrue.

The Wilmington Star makes the following apposite enquiry:

WHY IS IT?—If the Radicals are not preparing for war, as they say they are not, why is it, we ask, that the negroes in this city are taught to assemble at different points upon certain signals of a bugle, in the depth of night? Is that a necessary concomitant for militia drill? The above has occurred several times lately, as many good citizens can avouch. What do they mean?

From the Philadelphia Universe, 11th.

A RICH ARTICLE—HOW MANY TIMES A MAN SHOULD VOTE.

"The election for this State will take place on the day after to-morrow. Late good patriots and true members of the community, we hope that every citizen will vote early in the morning, late at night, and as often as possible during the day. If the right of suffrage is a great political right it deserves as frequent exercise as it is possible to give it on the days of test. It is true that there are milliguant laws, for the punishment of the patriotic act of voting more than once at one and the same election. But it is people without any public spirit that are afraid of these bad statutes. The citizens of true, national courage never shrink from the penalty of imprisonment and mulctation attached to them; but skilfully and bodly they both circumvent and defy them—thus doing high honor to their manhood and important service to their country. The only way to cover an opposing party with the shame of defeat is to vote as frequently against it as possible. As in the field of war against treason and invasion, every soldier is bound by all the laws of pride, justice, humanity, and valor to give his musket no rest in sending bullets into the camp of the enemy; so in the more important contest of the scramble for the offices of the nation each good citizen is under a most sacred duty to be as continuous as ever he can in putting votes in the ballot box against the peculating faction that would have all the good things of this glorious republic to itself. Therefore we say go to the polls early, go to them late, and go to them as often as you can during the day. Universal suffrage means nothing if it does not justify this."

The above advice perhaps suits some people, and is designed, no doubt, as a hit at some party. We hope Democrats will repel the counsel, by voting only once, but to be sure to vote once.

RADICAL DOCUMENTS.

The country is flooded with sensational Radical documents, full of caricatures and barefaceds falsehood reflecting upon Hon. Horatio Seymour's loyalty and upon Gen. Blair, totally perverting the truth. They are illustrated with vile pictures to deceive and excite the negroes. We learn that the little negro boys hawk them about for sale. They came from Radical headquarters at Washington City and are manufactured to suit by the million. Our friends should denounce them everywhere.

THE SKIES ARE BRIGHTENING.

The Republican majority greatly reduced in Pennsylvania and Ohio.

INDIANA VERY CLOSE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15, M.

The Republican majority in Pennsylvania is about ten thousand. Covodes election is more probable. The Legislature is Republican by a reduced majority—securing a Republican Senator vice Buckalew. The Age estimates the majority in the State at 3 000.

OHIO.

The latest advices indicate fifteen thousand Republican majority.

INDIANA.

Indiana is very close. Bakers election is, however, regarded certain.

Voorhees' election is again claimed by the Democrats.

GREENSBURG, PA., Oct. 15, M.

Every township in the 21st. District, heard from, gives Covode 29 majority.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Oct. 16, M.

American doctrine is fully maintained in the treaty just concluded regarding naturalization. Johnson and Stanly are now considering the Alabama claims.

Burlingame and his Chinese are gaining ground.

Vesuvius is becoming violent. Immense streams of lava flowing from the craters.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15, M.

Turpentine drooping, 44 to 44½.

Rosin and freights quiet.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 15, M.

Cotton tends down. Provisions dull.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15, P. M.

General Hancock has arrived.

The World, in a double leaded article, suggests a change of the candidates

Thos R Laird has been appointed Revenue Supervisor for the District composed of Virginia and West Virginia.

General Howard has issued orders to the Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmans Bureau to close his office on November 1st.

ELECTION RETURNS.

Indiana close. Official returns are needed to decide whether Headricks or Baker are elected.

Holman and Voorhees are elected. Gain of one. The Democrats gain eight Congressmen and lose one in Tuesday's election.

Nothing further regarding the majorities in Pennsylvania or Ohio. It is believed that the Republican estimates are considerably too large.

LATER.

The last returns make the majorities in Pennsylvania from ten to fifteen thousand. Ohio about the same. Both will probably be reduced by further returns.

FROM NORFOLK—THE COMMERCIAL CONVENTION.

NORFOLK, Oct. 15, P. M.

The business Committee reported in favor of the adoption of the Bristol Convention, regarding direct communication between Europe, Norfolk, Mississippi and Ohio Valley. The report was adopted.

One hundred and fifty thousand dollars was subscribed. Norfolk 50,000, Nashville, 25,000 and Petersburg 20,000, &c.

The planters are holding a Mass-Meeting to consider the propriety of subscribing one hundred thousand.

FROM CHARLESTON—HON. JNO. QUINCY ADAMS.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 15, P. M.

Hon. John Quincy Adams has accepted an invitation from the Democracy of Charleston, to visit this city, and address them. He is expected to-morrow night.

Handsome Property for Sale.

WILL BE SOLD, on Tuesday, the 27th of October, 1868, at Auction, before the Court House in Tarboro', that very desirable residence lately owned by Jos. W. Wimberly, Esq., situated about 4 miles from the town of Tarboro', and within five hundred yards of M. Nair's crossing on the Tarboro' Branch Railroad.

The Tract consists of

EIGHTY SIX ACRES

of first-class Piney Woods Land, about 20 acres cleared, balance in original forest growth. The soil is finely adapted to the cultivation of COTTON, CORN and Vegetables. A beautiful Truck or Fruit Farm could be made of it. Several scuppernong Vines in bearing and a choice lot of selected Peach, Pear, and Apple Trees adjoining the residence.

The Dwelling, a modern-built house of eight rooms, four below and four above, with wide passage on first floor, and verandas in front and rear, is handsomely located in a grove of two acres. A well of purest cold water on the premises. Every necessary out-house, all in a fine state of preservation. This place is situated in a proverbially healthy country, chills and fever being almost unknown, and is about the centre of one of the finest neighborhoods in the country. A residence combining so many advantages is seldom in the market.

Possession given on 1st January, 1869.

Terms—Twelve months credit, with interest from that date.

On same day and same terms, Jos. W. Wimberly's one-fourth remainder interest in the Wilson Tract of Land, and his one-fourth remainder interest in the Harrison Fund

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but ever, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their indisputable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at H. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

The Best CLOWNS in the World!

The FINEST TRAINED HORSES ever seen in a Circus

Thrilling Acts and Exciting Feats,

Performed by Artists who have NO PARALLELS in their vocation.

A VARIETY TO PLEASE EVERY TASTE.

As No Circus, either in this country or in Europe, has so many FIRST CLASS PERFORMERS as STONE & MURRAY.

The Troupe has never been equaled, and is now

Absolutely Richer in Talent

than any three other exhibitions combined.

The ENTERTAINMENTS of THIS CIRCUS are presented to its patrons surrounded by the attributes of respectability and elegance and purified of all objectionable features.

The present tour of STONE & MURRAY'S CIRCUS will convince all those who attend its exhibitions that it is worthy of the class of being

"The Best in the World."

As STONE & MURRAY'S CIRCUS travels entirely by Railroad, on special Trains; therefore, it makes no attempt to deceive the public by a parade of empty wagons drawn by weary horses, but its Exhibitions, which are generally acknowledged by all the leading Journals of the country to be

INCOMPARABLY SUPERIOR

to those of any other Circus, will be given

On a Scale of Grandeur, and with such BRILLIANT EFFECT, that they will be wrote long to be remembered by every patron.

To make the announced Exhibitions unprecedentedly successful and attractive, pledge themselves to redeem every promise of excellence, feeling confident that their extra large Troupe will excite the admiration and fulfill the expectations of their patrons.

STONE & MURRAY

STONE AND MURRAY'S CIRCUS

Will exhibit in GOLDSBORO', FRIDAY, October 30th, and COMPANY SHOPS, MONDAY, October 26th.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That as this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this state, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVEETION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, renewing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the officer-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering); and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in the power, dissolved it and subjected the States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of espionage to pry into the secrets of the bed chamber, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partizan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It matters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.

NORTH CAROLINA PAPERS.

DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL, WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is the oldest Daily in the State, a leading Democratic journal, located in the largest commercial city in the State, and is a large and ably conducted newspaper. Its circulation is extensive and increasing, and it is a capital advertising sheet. We have no better paper in the State. Price of Daily, $10 per annum. Weekly $3. Address ENGELHARD & PRICE,
Wilmington, Sept. 4 tf Proprietors.

THE MORNING STAR, WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is a young Daily, still in its first volume and, by its sprightliness and energy, has a growing circulation. It is a warm supporter of Seymour and Blair, and is doing good service. It is a good medium for advertisers and merits the patronage of the public. Price of Daily $5 per year. Address W. H. BERNARD,
Wilmington, Sept. 4-tf Proprietor.

DAILY ROUGH NOTES, GOLDSBORO', N. C.

This is a sprightly little Daily, and is thoroughly Democratic. It is located in the Cotton region of the State, and is a good advertising medium. It works manfully for Seymour and Blair. Price $6 per annum. Address J. A. BONITZ,
Goldsboro', Sept. 4-tf Proprietor.

THE SOUTHERNER, TARBORO', N. C.

Our friend, Capt. Biggs, is giving to the public a capital Weekly, ardent in its advocacy of Democratic principles. It is located in the rich Cotton County of Edgecombe, and in one of the prettiest villages of the State, among an energetic people. It has a good circulation and advertising patronage. Price $3 per annum. Address WM. BIGGS,
Tarboro', Sept 4 tf Proprietor.

SEMI-WEEKLY INDEX, HENDERSON, N. C.

This is an excellent Conservative journal, conducted with spirit and energy, and well deserves the patronage of the public. It is located on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, in a fine Wheat and Tobacco region, and is an excellent advertising medium. Its terms are moderate. It is now published weekly at $3 per annum, and on the 3d of October the Semi-Weekly will be issued at $5 per annum. Address FURMAN & NEWBY, Henderson, N. C., Sept. 4-tf Proprietors.

THE RECORDER, HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

Dennis Heartt, Esq., the oldest Editor living in the South, continues to publish the Recorder, and, though nearly ninety years of age, performs the duties of Editor and Foreman of his office. His paper indicates the quiet, truthful and reliable character of its Editor. It stands up for the Constitution and the Union, and supports Seymour and Blair. Price $3. Address DENNIS HEARTT.
Sept. 9-tf

ROANOKE NEWS, WELDON, N. C.
